

Contemporary Appalachian Tap Dancing

The AppalTappers would like to welcome new dancers to a Free Open House evening.

Learn modern Appalachian Tap, have fun, keep your brain active and exercise in a friendly atmosphere to modern upbeat music.

When	7 th September
Where	Bashley Village Hall BH25 5RY
Time	6.30 to 7.30pm

An easy workshop will introduce you to the first few steps, and then during the six-week course you will learn the rest of the Basic programme which will enable you to dance alongside the rest of the club dancers.

See what we look like on our web site or ring me and I will answer all your questions.

All you need to bring is shoes that will slide easily on the wooden dance floor, and a bottle of water.

I look forward to welcoming you.

Yvonne
